Re: Interqual, LLC

To Whom It May Concern:

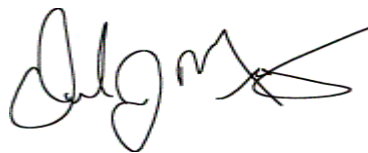

I have had the pleasure of working with Oleksander Serga in conjunction with the build out of four commercial offices in the Plaza, downtown Orlando. Our tenants, three law firms, are extremely satisfied with the quality of construction and finishes provided.

Interqual, LLC has been able to timely complete the build outs despite stringent time constraints and modifications to the original plans for each project. Interqual, LLC was able to adjust to design modifications without effecting the completion dates. In addition, Interqual, LLC was extremely reasonable in not "nickel and diming" change order fees.

Interqual, LLC was competitively priced without affecting the underlying quality of the construction. Interqual, LLC was able to work with outside design consultants, architects and engineers as well as property management companies and building officials in assuring timely completion of build outs. The on-site project manager was pleasant to deal with and conscientiously oversaw the projects through completion.

I would strongly recommend Interqual, LLC for any construction project. I know our company will be utilizing Interqual, LLC for its future construction needs.

Sincerely,

Donald J. Masten
